The rental letter will be integrated with information relating to the state of the vehicle at the time of return (called the "Check-in" form), and will be valid as a return report;
- b) These general and specific rental conditions, including any annexes;
- c) The damage table and the official price list can be consulted on the website www.viaggiarent.com

The documentation referred to in points a) and b) will be sent in digital format (pdf) by email to the Customer upon signing the rental contract. It is understood that, if the Customer makes an express request to the operator at the rental desk, the aforementioned documents will also be made available in paper copy upon signing the rental contract.

By signing the Rental Agreement, the Customer accepts the terms and data contained therein, its attachments, what is indicated on the conditions of the vehicle, the check-out/check-in forms, as well as these General and Special Rental Conditions.

Art. 2 – Driving requirements and rental accessibility

When collecting the vehicle, the Customer and each authorized driver must show a valid national driving license or permit that enables them to drive the rented vehicle, a valid means of payment accepted by the Lessor, as well as a document personal identity or passport. In the case of a license with characters other than Latin characters and numbers other than Arabic numbers (for example Cyrillic, Hebrew, Chinese, etc.), in addition to the international driving permit, a sworn translation of the license is required. Both the Customer and each authorized driver, for all car categories, must be between 25 and 75 years of age as well as be in possession of a valid driving license from an EU/EFTA country which qualifies for the type of vehicle rented, issued for at least 12 months and expiring after the rental period. When the Customer is unable to present the required documents upon collection of the vehicle, the Lessor may refuse to conclude the contract, or withdraw from it if already signed, without this leading to any breach of contract by the Lessor or obligation of compensation/indemnity to any title due. In any case, the Lessor has the right to refuse the conclusion of the rental contract at its free and unquestionable discretion.

In the event of absolute unavailability to assign a Vehicle, or in the event of the Customer's opposition to accepting a Vehicle other than the category booked, the Lessor's only burden will be to refund the amount paid up to that point by the Customer for the rental of the vehicle. . The refund will be made

The Customer may request a refund of the amount paid for the online booking made solely on the website www.viaggiarent.com, if the cancellation of the booking is made before 24 hours prior to the time set for collection of the vehicle; however, if the cancellation is made in a shorter period of time, the Customer will have the right to obtain a voucher that can be used on a subsequent booking, unless there is demonstration of just cause underlying the request and the impossibility of collection. The amount of the voucher will be equal to the prepaid amount minus a 30% penalty and will be usable by December 31st of the year of issue. In any case, the cancellation request must be formally made by e-mail to reservation@viaggiare.it. No refunds will be provided for failure to collect if the Customer does not possess the requisites/documentation necessary to stipulate the Contract (valid driving licence, credit card in his name, etc.). All easily detectable damages will be managed and quantified by applying the "Damage Table", which constitutes an integral part of these general contract conditions, developed and periodically updated in order to allow the management of damages in a practical and rapid way, through the prior indication of the average cost of repairing the most common minor damages based on the amounts requested by body shops and workshops for parts and labor. It is understood that, if the Customer makes an express request to the operator at the rental desk, the damage table can also be delivered in paper copy upon signing the rental contract.
 - b. Checking the car

During check-out (exit of the vehicle for rental), all damage already present on the vehicle will be listed in the appropriate Check-Out Form. The Customer is obliged to carefully check what is reported in the aforementioned form, checking that there are no errors and reporting any discrepancies detected to our operators before leaving the station with the vehicle. In the absence of notification by the Customer of detection errors upon delivery of the vehicle, all damages detected upon return of the same and not reported in the check-out form are considered to have been caused during the rental period. At the time of return (check-in), a new check will be carried out on the vehicle and the Customer will be given the Check-In Form for signing, which will indicate any new damage not caused by normal wear and tear. Normal wear and tear means normal wear and tear due to reasonable use of the vehicle e.g. minimal scratches and chips, micro-dents under 1 centimeter. During peak periods, the Lessor's staff will need 15 to 30 minutes to carry out the check-in check and agree with the Customer on any damage and discrepancies found. If damage of this type is detected, the Lessor will inform the Customer, providing documentation proving what has been found within 30 days of communication before charging the related costs. In such cases the Lessor will release the security deposit only at the end of the checks which must in any case be completed within 30 days from the date of return of the vehicle.

d. Technical stop

Upon the occurrence of any harmful event, including claims without counterparty or unreported, the Customer will be charged a fee for technical downtime of the vehicle in the amount of €70.00 including VAT. This amount is fixed, per rental, regardless of the duration of the detention and the category of the rented vehicle.

e. Damage detection and charging

The detection phase is characterized by the following 3 most common scenarios:

- i. Simple damage, agreed upon during return. For simple damages agreed and accepted by the Customer during check-in, an amount equal to that indicated in the Damage Table attached to the rental contract/letter will be charged and will be included in the final invoice.
- ii. Simple damage, not agreed because the Customer was not present. If during the check-in phase the Customer is unable to attend the checks (due to rush or late return) and the damage detected is simple, the Lessor will charge the relevant amount using the Damage Table attached to the contract.
In such cases the Customer will be appropriately informed by email or traditional mail. The notification in question will be sent within 30 working days of returning the vehicle with the documentation proving the damage attached.
- iii. Significant damage, if the damage is significant and/or hidden or not quantifiable based on the damage table, the Lessor will charge the estimated repair amount, following communication sent to the customer 5 working days before the charge. If within 5 working days of receiving the notice of charge, the customer communicates via email to sinistri@viaggiare.it to avail himself of the right to request, at his own expense, the assessment of the damage by a certified third-party expert company, the Lessor will proceed with the charge after the outcome of the aforementioned assessment.

f. Complaints

The Customer has the right to complain within 7 days from the end date of the rental for any disservice received.

g. Return using the KEY BOX

The Vehicle must be returned during the opening hours of the Agency where it was collected. The Customer acknowledges that the rental ends on the date and time of actual return of the vehicle to the Lessor's staff. In the event that the vehicle is returned outside the opening hours of the Agency, the rental will not be considered concluded with the insertion of the keys in the "KEY BOX", but ends on the date and time of the next reopening of the Agency, i.e. until the Lessor regains possession of the vehicle. Until the Agency reopens, the Customer is responsible for any damage found and not reported to the vehicle, and is also responsible for the theft in any capacity by third parties of the vehicle or parts of it, as well as the keys placed in cassette. By using the Key Box, the customer must communicate via email to keybox@viaggiare.it the place and time of return, the mileage travelled, the fuel level and any damage caused during the rental period, attaching photo/video of the state of the vehicle when the keys were returned.

2. In the event of failure to return the Vehicle within the times indicated in the contract/rental letter (i.e. after the 29 minutes of maximum tolerance of the Lessor beyond the return time indicated in the contract) the Customer undertakes to pay the penalty foreseen for "late check in", without prejudice in any case to greater damage and subject to written authorization from the Lessor for the continuation of the rental. In this case, until the request for extension; after this deadline, the above penalty will be applied again. This extra will be indicated in the rental letter, together with the fee due for the "One Way" service (see table art. 10). In other cases of failure to return the vehicle to the place indicated in the Rental Letter, but in any case to a Lessor's Agency, if this option has not been chosen and indicated in the contract, the Lessor reserves the right to charge as a penalty the the amount foreseen in the "one way" item of the Extra costs table, in addition to any damage resulting from the unavailability of the car at the expected return agency.

In the event that the rental is extended to an effective duration exceeding 30 days, during which the Customer has continuous and exclusive availability of the vehicle, the Customer himself is required to update the national register of vehicles referred to in the articles 94, paragraph 4 bis, of the Highway Code and 237 bis of Presidential Decree no. 495/1992, bearing any costs and charges. The Customer must provide the Lessor with a copy of the documentation proving the fulfillment of the aforementioned obligation. In case of failure to comply with the provisions mentioned above, the Customer indemnifies the Lessor from any prejudicial consequences, undertaking to reimburse the Lessor for any expenses and/or costs deriving from his/her non-compliance.
4. In the event of a breakdown or simple request by the Lessor, the vehicle must be returned by the Customer to any Agency of the Lessor which will replace it subject to availability. In the event that the Customer carries out the repairs, the Lessor will reimburse the Customer for the sums spent on repairs due to breakdowns of the vehicle, provided that they occurred in Italy, and resulting from an invoice duly made out to the Lessor and in any case previously authorized in writing by the Lessor.
